SHREK STOMPS HIS WAY TO THE TUGGERANONG FESTIVAL

Join Shrek, Princess Fiona and the rest of the gang as Shrek: Stompin' in the Swamp arrives at this year's Tuggeranong Festival. With Shrek Forever After currently in movie theatres, the show is likely to prove a big hit with the kids.

Festival President and big kid Michael Lindfield is thrilled to have the show at the Festival.

"It's a great show, full of colour and music, and it will definitely ramp up the excitement levels of an already electric day," he said.

Shrek is just one part of the Festival's children's activities. The Festival's long running Kids' Corner will be there from 11am to 2pm with a petting farm, face painting, balloons and a jumping castle. There will also be plenty of activities throughout the day for all the family to enjoy.

Shrek: Stompin' in the Swamp will be on at the main stage of the Tuggeranong Community Festival, held at the Tuggeranong Town Park on Anketell Street on Saturday 27th November 2010. The gang will also be hanging around after the shows so make sure you stop by and say hello.

The Tuggeranong Community Festival began 22 years ago as a neighbourhood gathering in Kambah. Since then, it has grown to become one of Canberra's favourite festivals, celebrating community spirit, promoting multicultural diversity and showcasing artistic, civic and sporting achievements.
